

IBM Security Access Manager for Mobile 8.0 Information

Length:	2.0 Days
Ref:	TW115G
Delivery method:	Classroom Instructor Led Online
Price:	EUR

Overview

IBM® Security Access Manager for Mobile provides mobile access security protection in a modular package. It addresses mobile security challenges by enforcing access policies for web and mobile applications. IBM Security Access Manager for Mobile is available as a virtual or hardware appliance for faster deployment time and lower cost of ownership.

Public

This basic course is designed for IBM Security Access Manager for Mobile administrators.

Prerequisites

You should have knowledge in using basic Linux commands.

Objective

- Describe the need for mobile access security
- Describe the features of IBM Security Access Manager for Mobile
- Install and configure the mobile gateway appliance
- Install and configure the reverse proxy server
- Author access policies with multifactor authentication
- Perform auditing, logging, and tracing for mobile transactions and processes

Topics

- Unit 1 Introduction to Security Access Manager for Mobile
- Unit 2 Installing to Security Access Manager for Mobile virtual appliance
- Unit 3 Configuring the Security Access Manager for Mobile virtual appliance
- Unit 4 Authoring access policies
- Unit 5 Configuring mobile security
- Unit 6 Authoring context-based access policies

